Statement of Mr. M. S. Venkatesan
S/o Subramanya Iyer, native of Mandekollathur village, Polour Taluk, N. A dist. Age about 25 yrs.

I am a Smartha Brahmin. My father, who was a Head clerk in the Dist. Forest office Coimbatore, died in 1914. I am the only surviving son of my father and I have a younger and an elder Sister. I have got landed property in my native village and it is undivided. There are my cousins in the village and my father's cousin brother, Mr. M. Venkataraman Iyer, Retired Inspector of Schools, is looking after our properties and he is also living there.

I was brought up by my paternal uncle Mr. M. K. Ramaswami Iyer, who is a clerk in the Chief Secretariat Fort St. George Madras and he lives now at C/8 Tadhandan Nagar Saidapet. I have studied up to S.S.L.C in P. S. High School Mylapur and in Mahanta High School Vellore. I did not secure a pass in the exam. While in Vellore, I was put up with my father's cousin Mr. M. Sundaraman Iyer, who is a teacher in Mahanta High School. I worked for about a year in the Electrical Laboratory Engineering College Guindy as an apprentice in 1932. In 1933 I came to Kg. 7 in the month of October and was employed in the Kg. 7 Electricity Dept. as Chargeman of batteries for about 6 months. Mr. Hill, Asst. Electrical Engineer, recommended me to Mr. Morrison, Chief Underground Agent Byrne Mines and he appointed me as a clerk in the Edgar Time office on a salary of Rs 35/- in March 1934 and I am still continuing there.

I have been a representative of "The Madras News Agency" since a month. and My Vernacular is Tamil and I have a desire to edit and publish a Tamil weekly containing some short stories, Cenema news, sports and the news of K.G.F in general & at it printed at the Immanuel press Robertsonpet, under name "Thanga Vyal" meaning Gold Fields" till now I was not an editor of any paper or a correspondent. Though I have not made a special study of Tamil, I am able to write short stories which interest the public and write articles in Chaste language. In order that the Weekly may be within the easy reach of all I want to charge 0-12-0 as subscription per year and sell each copy containing 8 pages at quarter anna. I have no partner in this concern & I dont take one even in future. The weekly is not intended to indulge in Politics, Religious discussions or Labour questions and I promise that I do not enter into any such unpleasantness which is detrimental to my interest.
